- Does the material accomplish my purpose?
- Does content show originality?
- Do I give credit for quoted materials?
- Is content organized?
- Is there unity of thought?
- Is my subject developed in a logical manner?
- Am I discriminating in choice of words?
- Is my sentence structure and my grammar correct?

B. Delivery

- Does my voice have a pleasing quality and pitch?
- Is my articulation good?
- Is my pronunciation correct?
- Does my delivery seem natural or affected?
- How is my stage presence? (Consider personal appearance, poise, posture, attitude, confidence, personality, and ease before an audience)
- How do I express myself? (Consider directness, fluency, emphasis, sincerity)
- Does my delivery convey the thought to the audience?

C. Overall Effect

- Is the speech interesting, understandable, convincing and pleasing?

D. Suggestions to help improve your speaking ability

- Write your speech down on a piece of notebook paper.
- Read it over and make any corrections that you need.
- Read your speech out loud. Practice hearing yourself speaking out loud.
- Speak loud enough that you may be heard by the person sitting in the back of the room.
- Practice your speech in front of a mirror.
- Practice your speech in front of your Leaders and/or parents.

Mission Speak Out Application

The Mission Speak Out involves Royal Ambassadors, Girls in Action, Children in Action, and youth in mission awareness by providing an opportunity for them to speak publicly for mission involvement. The following guidelines for competition are intended to give uniformity to the event.

- Participants must be active members of a missions discipleship ministry of the church. (RA, GA, CA, Challengers, Acteens or similar)
- Each persons application must be signed by his leader and his pastor (optional for Lads and Crusaders).
- It would be beneficial to contact the state office at (214) 275-1184 or royal.ambassadors@texansonmission.org before November 1 to indicate your intention of participating in the Challengers Mission Speak Out.
- A completed application for each speaker must be turned in at the registration area prior to the close of registration on Saturday at noon.
